

The Anthony Baines Memorial Prize 1999

The Galpin Society confers the first Anthony Baines Memorial Prize on

Albert Richard Rice

in recognition of his contributions to the history of the clarinet at the highest levels of scholarship; also for his support over many years to the Galpin Society Journal, including the authorship of numerous articles; for his services to the study of musical instruments through substantial voluntary work on the International Directory of Musical Instrument Collections as well as his generous assistance to other scholars, in particular his encouragement to young organologists, and his enlightened management of a musical instrument museum in difficult circumstances.